REPORT NO. 25X1X

1. On 8 November 1951 the Kwangsi branch of the Sino-Soviet Friendship Association (SSFA) organized four propaganda teams, each composed of two to three Soviet persons and 30 to 50 persons appointed by the Chinese Communists. The first team was responsible for propaganda work in a sector west of Nanning; the second team northeast of Nanning; the third team north of Nanning; and the fourth team southeast of Nanning. On the fourth team were two Soviet members of the Kwangsi SSFA, NUNG Wei (農偉) and KUO Chin (郭瑾).
2. As of November the chief inspector of the Peihai (109-05, 21-24) customs [REDACTED] was CHANG K'un (張勤), 43 years of age and a northerner. Under the jurisdiction of the head customs administration of the Peiping government, the Peihai customs house was responsible for inspecting goods, collecting duties, and handling foreign exchange settlements. It had for its use three 20-ton customs patrol boats, each manned by two officers, two engineers, and four sailors. The designations of these boats were Peihai Customs Numbers 111, 112, and 113. When patrolling the sea outside the harbor they were armed; when operating in the harbor they were not.
